NEW VISIT OF ANOTHER MIRACULOUS CRYING ICON

Our Saints Constantine and Helen Church Family will be blessed once again with a visit by another miraculous myrrh-streaming icon - the Hawaiian Holy Theotokos of Iveron icon. This mount-printed icon, which is a replica of the Montreal myrrh-streaming Iveron icon of the Theotokos, began streaming sweet-smelling myrrh in 2007, and has continued on and off ever since.

To mark the 10th anniversary of the beginning of this miracle from God, this icon is traveling around the East Coast to bless all believers. Our Church will once again be blessed with such a visit on Monday, October 16th at 6:00pm.

In June of 2008, the “Hawaiian” Myrrh-streaming Iveron Icon was officially recognized by the Russian Orthodox Church as miraculous and worthy of veneration, and was given the blessing to travel to the various churches and monasteries of Holy Orthodoxy. This icon travels and brings the grace of God to various places. Since June of 2008, the Iveron Icon has been to over 1000 churches in North America and has been venerated by millions of people throughout North America, Europe and the world.

In many cities, the holy Icon is taken from one parish to another, being venerated by all the Orthodox, and helping to establish and heal relationships amongst the Orthodox faithful, and also strengthening and fostering ties between the sister parishes. Requests have now been made for the Wonder-working Icon to be brought to Russia, the Ukraine, Greece, Cyprus, South America, Europe, the Holy Land, Romania, Mount Athos, and Serbia. When the Holy Icon was taken to the Republic of Georgia in 2014 at the request of the Catholicos-Patriarch Ilia II of Georgia, over a million faithful came to venerate the “Panagia of Hawaii.

Numerous miracles have been attributed to the Theotokos through this “humble little Icon.” Physical
The mission of Sts. Constantine and Helen Church is to proclaim the Good News of Salvation through the Orthodox Christian Faith for the glory of our Triune God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We are a community of believers who journey towards our Lord Jesus Christ and one another through our WORSHIP, FELLOWSHIP, SPIRITUAL GROWTH, WITNESS, and SERVICE. We invite all people to join us on this journey in the Kingdom of Heaven.

We are under the jurisdiction of
His Holiness, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew
His Eminence, Archbishop Demetrios of America
His Eminence, Metropolitan Methodios of Boston

Father Luke A. Veronis

email: frlukeveronis@gmail.com
and spiritual healings have included the healing of blindness and eye disease, cancer, paralysis, kidney disease, chronic pain, debilitating viruses, and demonic possession.

Yet, wherever the holy Icon goes, the Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Holy Mother abound. People have commented that just being in the presence of this Icon, one feels such an abundance of love and joy. It is truly indescribable. We are so very blessed that God has shown His love toward us by allowing us a small forbearance of what the saints call, "the true fragrance of sanctity." The true meaning of why the icon miraculous streams myrrh is known only to God. Time will reveal all things. Yet, what is known is this - God loves us. And that is all that really matters!

We will welcome the icon, and hold a Supplication Service to the Virgin Mary, along with an Akathist Hymn starting at 6:00pm, Monday, October 16th. Please come to church by 5:00pm so we can welcome the icon when it arrives. It should be arriving around 5:30pm.

As many of you experienced and remember, we were blessed with a visit from the Kardiotissa (Tender Hearted) Icon of the Virgin Mary 15 months ago in June, 2015. We had over 800 people who came to see the icon, and by the grace and mercy of God, I learned about five miracles that occurred from the anointing of myrrh from that icon. This is a mystery of our faith, which we can’t comprehend. How is this scientifically possible? Why do miracles happen to some people, and not to others who are very sick? Why is it happening now? We don’t know the answers to these questions, and we don’t try to offer answers. We simply thank God for this blessing, and pray that this encounter with the divine will draw us closer to Him, and inspire us to live more faithfully in following the path that leads into the Kingdom of heaven. As the beloved Bishop Gerasimos used to say, “Life is not a problem to be solved, but a mystery to be lived.” May we all strive to live that mystery with faith and love!

On another note, thank God this month we are starting our monthly soup kitchen, “The Living Bread Luncheon” on Saturday, October 7th from 12:30-1:30. We will hold this the first Saturday of every month. This is open to all those in need in the Webster area. If you know of anyone who would appreciate this, please invite them to come. Also, please come yourself and volunteer.

With love and gratitude in Christ Jesus our Lord,
Luke

Visit of Iveron Icon
6:00pm Paraclesis Service and Anointing With Holy Myrrh
Monday, October 16th

In the middle of this bulletin you will see an insert describing the beautiful iconography and stain glass windows within our Church. Many visitors express how beautiful our Church is, and how they feel the presence of God so tangibly through the beauty of the sanctuary, as well as from the warmth of our Church Family.

I wanted to produce a little bulletin to give to visitors when they enter our church, so they would not only take in the beauty of the art, but understand the theology and meaning of our icons and stain glass symbols. Icons are often called “windows into heaven” because they give us a glimpse of the sacred. I believe and hope that even our own faithful believers will learn something new and learn to appreciate the sacred space of our Church as you read through this bulletin.
WHY BECOME ORTHODOX?
George and Annalisa Dunning

Why become Orthodox? This is a question we have pondered often over this last year. We both grew up in Christian families and in churches that emphasized reading the Scriptures and daily prayer. What a gift to start off with this foundation, for these are both still very important to our faith!

For a number of years we attended an Episcopal church where we learned to love the liturgy and the Eucharist. This was a valuable time as we experienced a more sacramental style of worship. So when we moved to central Mass, we had at least some ideas of what we were looking for when we began searching for a new place to worship.

So with these valuable experiences in our past, what drew us to Orthodoxy? There are probably many answers to this, but several things come to mind when reflecting on our journey. First is its connectedness to the ancient Church. If one wants to see how the early church worshiped, we need look no further than our worship on Sunday mornings. Its antiquity and yet timelessness is really wonderful for those of us searching for a rootedness to our faith.

Secondly, Orthodox theology was a big draw for us. Really? Isn’t theology dull and dry and boring? Well, it doesn’t have to be! We found in Orthodox writers, both ancient and modern, the ability to ponder the mysteries of God without becoming either dry and academic or overly sentimental. Orthodox theology, while wrestling with some very difficult questions, always keeps in mind that these questions are important because they help us to better understand God and how to be drawn into union with Him. So these theological works actually give us insight for how to live our lives. Furthermore, Orthodox theology keeps it’s focus on those central themes which affect how we become children of God without getting lost in details which are unknowable or at best speculative. It leaves ample room for the mystery of God.

Finally, we were attracted by the changelessness of the Orthodox church. While sometimes criticized for not “staying with the times”, the Orthodox church seeks to proclaim timeless truth rather than following theological fads. It follows proven methods for growing deep, mature Christians rather relying on gimmicks and pop culture. And in a way, that changelessness is comforting even when confronting difficult teachings of the Church. For it allows time for my own faith to mature in its understanding without having to worry if the teachings of the Church are going to change.

Of course, there are other reasons as well. We saw the impact of Orthodoxy in the lives of some family members who had converted before us. Both seeing their faith and desiring to be in closer communion with them was important. Certainly this parish has played a big part. We have always felt welcome here. It has a strong presence in the community. And there are many opportunities to grow deeper in our faith through various worship services and educational times.

What a treasure we have here at Saints Constantine and Helen! And of course, the tireless work of Fr. Luke and Presbytera Faith have blessed us in so many ways. Thank you to all of you for welcoming us on this journey.
PHILOPTOCHOS NEWS

I would like to say THANK YOU to all our hardworking women of the Philoptochos who generously gave of their time and money to make the pastry booth, and our festival, another huge success. With all their donations we were able to pay for all the ingredients needed for our breads and pastries! We made almost $5,000, which is the best ever! We all should be so proud of ourselves. It was nice to see all the support we received from our church community and our town. Thank you all for your hard work!

The “Wheelbarrel of Cheer” was another huge success! We made almost $500 which was donated to the IOCC for the hurricane victims!

On September 25 we had a meeting and a pizza party. It was a disappointing turn out! I realize people are busy so we decided to have another meeting on Sunday, Oct. 15 after church. There is a lot to discuss. We need more women to step up and get involved.

On October 25 we have our annual Craft Fair and Bake Sale from 9 to 3. The tables cost $25. See Sandi Kunkel to buy a table or if you know anyone that may be interested. We will have a center table raffle chaired by Dhimitra Adamopoulos. Please bring in a gift so we have a nice table that people will want to purchase more than 1 ticket. We are baking petas, baklava, and koulourakia at the church on Oct 25 at 8:30am. Please let me know if you can help bake. Also we are again looking for donations of ingredients to defray the cost. In addition we are asking for you to make other pastries at home such as finikia, pantespani, koulourakia, etc. See Thomai and Titi if you can help bake and work that day. Presbyter Faith, Lisa Healy, Titi Chito generously agreed to bake some of these items. But they need help in the kitchen and again donation. Spread the word and get your families and friends to come! Let us make this better than last year! The proceeds will go to donate to our various charities.

We voted to sponsor a meal for our newly formed “The Living Bread Luncheon” soup kitchen We also gave His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios a $500 check for the Philoxenia House. Someone suggested that we have an excursion to visit the Philoxenia House in the Spring. We also will be ordering another shed, buying more chairs, buying a new vacuum cleaner etc. So please come help support the Craft Fair Oct 25!

Next month’s meeting will be on November 6th at 6:00. We will have a lot to discuss with the holidays approaching. Please come!

With love and appreciation,

Evelyn Pappas
Philoptochos President
